

Dorit Eliyahu

dorit.eliyahu@gmail.com

www.doriteliyahu.com

Born

1973 in Shahr, Israel

Works/Lives

New York, NY, since 2017

Education

2024 MFA in Painting, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY (anticipated)

2018 Certificate in Design, Miami Ad School, Atlanta, GA

2007 PhD in Entomology, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC

2002 MS in Plant Protection, Hebrew University, Rehovot, Israel

1998 BS in Animal Sciences, Hebrew University, Rehovot, Israel

Exhibitions

2024 Tribeca Ball, Group Show, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY

2023 Deck The Walls, Group Show, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY

Everyday Rituals, Group Show, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY

Memory, Group Show, The Living Gallery, Brooklyn, NY

Tribeca Ball, Group Show, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY

2022 Deck The Walls, Group Show, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY

Teaching Experience

2023 SURP Teaching Assistant, New York Academy of Art, New York, NY

2012-2014 Adjunct Faculty, Biology, Pima Community College, Tucson, AZ

2009-2012 PERT Research & Teaching Fellow, Biology, University of Arizona & Pima Community College, Tucson, AZ

Awards & Grants

2023-2024 KAWS Patrons Scholar Award

2018 YCN Creative Student Award

Selected Bibliography

2020 The Earl Shaffer Newsletter, Earl Shaffer Foundation, Winter 2020, www.earlshaffer.com/newsletter

2014 Eliyahu, D. Chromoseratops meiosus: a simple, two-phase exercise to represent the connection between meiosis and increased genetic diversity. Am. Bio. Teacher. 76: 53-56.